BOY INJURED BY MACHINE

Running across Main street about one block from his home, six-year-old Edward McGowan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGowan, was struck, knocked down and seriously hurt by an automobile driven by Roy Chase, a mail carrier.

At first it was thought that the youngster's skull was fractured, and that his injuries would prove fatal, but after being unconscious until the next morning Dr. Chadwick discovered that the head injury had resulted in a concussion of the brain, and that recovery was practically assured.

The acident occured on Monday afternoon, causing a great deal of excitement.

Mr. Chase, who is known to be a very careful and moderate driver was going east on Main street, accompanied by his mother, and his aunt, Mrs. McGuire.

Apparently, the McGowan lad failed to see the car aproaching, and suddenly ran directly in front of it. Mr. Chase threw on his brakes and stopped within a few feet, but not before the machine had struck the boy.

Leaping from the car, the driver picked up the child, and seeing how badly he was injured, he placed him on the lawn in front of the Misses Tretton's home. Later another car approached, and took the boy to Dr. Burg Chadwick's office.

The boy suffered a deep gash over one eye, and was badly shaken up, besides body bruises and lacerations.

SMETHPORT HIGH SCHOOL LOSES TO COUDERSPORT

The local high school football team was disastrously defeated at Coudersport last Saturday by the score of 65 to 0. This score looks as if the locals could not play football, but their showing against Bradford this year proved that they could on occasions at least. Coudersport undoubtedly has the best team in this section of the state.

While Smethport was slightly lighter, the difference was not very great. The Coudersport team has been playing together for two or three years while Smethport's team is practically composed of lads who are playing their first year. The Coudersport team seemed to completely overwhelm the locals and to have them at their mercy. At one time during the game, due to a blocked and missed kick Smethport had the ball within about two feet of making a touchdown with two more downs and then Coudersport held them and the best chance of the game to score was lost.

The Smethport line-up which started the game was as follows:

Center—Emery Kohn.
Right Guard—John Hamilton.
Right Tackle—Gerald Denning.
Right End—Fred Heinlein.
Left End—Bob Cochran.
Quarter Back—John McDermott.
Right Half—Elwood Warner.
Full Back—Mike Colylostro.

After it was evident that the game could not be won numerous substitutions were made in order to relieve the first team players and give the substitutes a chance.

Port Allegany plays here next Saturday, the game to be called at 2:15. The locals are confident of winning this game and giving a good exhibition of football. Next Saturday the line-up will be changed. Cramer will play quarter back, Colyostro will play right tackle, Denning full back Halpenny end, and Heinlein left half. This change is expected to make a decided improvement in the playing of the local team.

LOCAL MAN FRIEND OF KELLY OF THE GIANTS.

Now that the Giants are World champions we have found that Frank Kelly, member of the team, was a close friend of Paul Hallstrom when the latter was at Kelly Field, Texas during the World War.

Quite an acquaintance-ship sprang up between the ball player and the local man, who is no doubt glad of his friend's good fortune in garnering over $5,000 during the big series.

GOLF COURSE NOW BEING LAID OUT BY EXPERT.

Applications for a charter will be made by the Smethport Country Club through its attorneys on November 28 in the Court of Common Pleas here.

This announcement coupled with the fact that about 20 men and seven teams are now busy laying out the golf course at the old Brennan estate just outside of town assures local golf lovers that they will be able to get out their clubs early in the spring and begin knocking the little white rubber pellets about to their heart's content.

Mr. Robinson, instructor at the Bradford golf club, is directing the work of construction on the local course. The preliminary work of plowing and grading up the greens is now being done, to be followed as rapidly as the weather permits by the finishing touches.

INSTITUTE TO BE GALA ONE

Everything is being made ready to receive the school teachers of the county who are expected to attend the Teachers' Institute which will begin on October 31.

Besides meaning a vacation for the youngsters who attend school, the institute will give the teachers and the public an oportunity to hear good speakers and excellent music, and be entertained by high class artists.

Such speakers as Senator F. B. Willis, Dr. Slutz, and Prof. Moore are men whose opinions along educational lines and upon topics and situations of the day are valuable and an oportunity to get their views is something to be sought.

County Superintendent Prof. C. W. Lillibridge reports that he is having some little difficulty finding accomodations for out-of-town teachers who desire to attend the institute but themselves have been unable to secure quarters. He requests anyone in a position to do so to make room for these teachers and communicate with him.

SULLIVAN-SLOCUM.

The marriage of Margaret May Sullivan, of Smethport, to William Slocum, of Bradford, was solemnized at St. Elizabeth's Catholic church rectory by Rev. P. J. Bonahue at 7:30 o'clock this morning.

Mr. John Cramsie and Miss Mary Geary were the attendants.

Miss Sullivan lived in Smethport for a number of years, and frequently visited Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Geary.

The Miner joins in the congratulations.

JUDGE BOUTON GIVES VIEWS

From the Bradford Star: Hon. Joseph W. Bouton of Smethport, judge of this county, was the guest of honor and the speaker at the weekly luncheon of the community club in the Board of Commerce rooms at noon today. The judge was invited to speak upon subjects he chose, and while he announced none formally, his remarks were clearly and wholly along the line of lawlessness and its causes and cures. He spoke straight from the shoulder and it is to be regretted his speech is not available in full, nor do we have time or space to publish a lengthy review of it.

Referring to lawlessness as it exists today in greater degree than ever in the history of our country, the judge said he believed the cause we usually gave for it, such as the war the violation of the 18th amendment, were superficial. Among the causes he gave were the lack of justice between man and man, the over-playing on the part of all of our "personal liberty and rights" which people liked to harp on and set up, whether laws interfered or not.

He said what needed emphasis most as the real antidote for lawlessness is personal duty over and against personal liberty and to respect all laws, whether they happen to please us or not. He also blamed loose divorce laws in this state and other breaking down the sanctity of

Events of Week Indicate Change for Better Here

With the announcement by Masser Brothers that they will continue in business at the old store on an even larger scale than before, coupled to the fact that representatives of the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company are said to have been looking over prospective sites for one of their stores in Smethport, a slightly better state of business conditions is looked for from now on.

Not only are these two developments of the week taken as indications of a reversion to normalcy in this place, but there are things of moment transpiring which even our most hardened pessimists can but recognize.

In another column of this page, one finds the announcement by J. Clayton Backus that he has $35,000 already subscribed in stock of the new electric light company, and has many other requests of stock from various sources.

The road to Bradford is now being traversed to a great extent, and local merchants say that on Saturday and Sunday of each week since they have been rushed by trade from out of town, brought here because of the new road.

Asked for information today concerning the opening of the local glass factory H. J. Walter, president of the Interstate Glass Co. said that from present indications the plant would not start until sometime after January 1, but that by the spring it would more than likely be running.

"We are exremely pleased at the present glass situation, as orders have been coming in rapidly. We have six tanks in operation now, and are putting into operation first those plants where the operating costs are lowest Smethport's plant is one of the smallest machine plan, and the operating costs are high," said Mr. Walter.

Masser Brothers state that the reason they are not going to sell out and quit business is because they are unable to realize a sufficient return on their investment, and because they have faith in the town as a business center.

The rumor that the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company will establish one of their stores here which will carry a complete line of groceries, etc., is a well-founded one, apparently, as several representatives were here during the past week looking for a site and expressed themselves that if they did not secure one they would probably build a store.

OCTOBER TERM OF ARGUMENT COURT CLOSES.

Quite a number of civil cases and three criminal ones were disposed of at the close of its October term of Argument Court. Joseph Devoir, 20 years old, charged with larceny and breaking a window of J. J. Coffey's store in Bradford and stealing several articles, was sentenced to serve not less than two and not more than three years in the Western penitentiary.

Frank Aiello, alias Elmer Miller, pleaded guilty of forging checks in Kane, made a plea that he had been out of work and he had a wife and child. He was sentenced to serve not less than one and not more than two years in the Western penitentiary.

The court granted decrees in the following divorce cases in which testimony was presented at September argument court.

Hazel E. McLellon from George H. McLellon; Lota Elwood from Claire Elwood; Edith Ashdown from Frederick Ashdown; Frances M. Washburn from William H. Washburn; Grace A. Gibson from Fred Gibson; Emma Gender Wallace from Ralph Lee Wallace; Lola J. Wardwell from Witson I. Wardwell; Laura E. Sincerny from George A. Sincerny; Pearl Flinchbaugh from George Flinchbaugh; Nancy C. Prentice from Reuben C. Prentice; Mildred Bailey from Wilson Bailey and Beulah Case from Harry Case; and Albert M. Nenno from Beulah L. Nenno.

MRS. W. C. DALY AT WOMENS' CLUB CONVENTION.

Mrs. W. C. Daly left Sunday for Pittsburg, where she will attend the General Federation of Womens' Club held there this week. Mrs. Daly will represent the Travelers Club of this place. She will undoubtedly bring back an interesting account of the activities of the hundreds of womens' organizations throughout the country.

Epidemic of Skunks; One Is Found in Post Office

This fair little borough is in the throes of a skunk epidemic, so to speak.

Within the past two weeks no less than twenty of these cute little nefarious rescals have been seen and, well, detected,—within the town limits. Several automobiles on Main street have narrowly, and perhaps wisely, escaped running down the animals which have descended upon the place in force and appear to regard it as a winter headquarters.

Nearly every evening of late the air is laden with that which is akin to a barrage of German gas. In fact last Sunday evening the members of various church congregations say that the odor which floated in through the partly open windows was downright disedifying.

School teachers say that of late numerous boys have been present in the classroom unmistably marked by contact with this present plague.

The climax, apparently, was reached Wednesday morning when Postmaster Workley began opening up shop for the usual business of the day, and suddenly came upon one of he pesky critters yawning unconcernedly a him from a cellar window.

A crowd soon collected and began to pet and cuddle the pretty black and white thing at a very safe distance. One rash youth, Eddie Lindholm, approached and ruffled his skunkship's temper, while the crowd melted in four separate directions.

Dr. Hamilton declared the animal to be a healthy specimen and full of possibilities.

After exploring the postmaster's stock of home-brew during the day, the animal left the cellar in the evening, streaking tipsily toward the woods.

The dog of Frank Sartwell had a very disastrous encounter with another skunk last Saturday night. Shortly afterward the dog entered a local drug store which was immediately emptied of its patrons. Someone purchased a bottle of perfume and liberally drenched the dog to counter-act the odor of the skunk and make life worth living for the wretched dog. At present the owner has it tied in a far corner of the lawn.

Howard Strong caught still another skunk in his hen house, while a week ago a pure white specimen marched up Main street for several blocks before the eyes of many amazed persons.

A well-known barrister hearing a noise at 3 a. m. recently went down stairs to find his dog and cat unsucessfully trying to repel a pole-cat invader. With his night dress flapping about him in the chill morning air, the lawyer finally managed to invite the skunk to leave by dint of careful persuasion, not gleaned from the pages of Blackstone.

Apparently there is no method of combatting the unpleasant situation, as the skunks have a decided advantage over the citizens.

TRAVELS 2,000 MILES IN 12 DAYS WITHOUT MISHAP

After driving 2,000 miles in 12 days from Smethport to Albuquerque, New Mexico, Forrest H. Nourse his wife and children arrived safely at their new home, according to word received by Mrs. Fred Nourse of this place.

M. P. Sawtelle, Mrs. Forest Nourse's father, accompanied the party as he lives in Albuquerque.

Leaving Smethport on September 29, the tourists had extremely good luck in point of road and car troubles having but two blowouts during the entire trip.

The roads of Missouri were described by them as being in the worst possible condition, thereby bearing out the many time-worn jokes concerning the "mire of Missouri."

The Nourse children thoroughly enjoyed the trip, and were fresh and enthusiastic at the end.

Mr. Nourse drove his 1921 Buick machine.

BATTLE WITH CRAZED MAN

In a battle with a drink-crazed Italian last Saturday night Constable A. B. Teed, of Norwich township, was shot in the neck, and County Detective Allison and Police Chief Dickinson, of this place, ran the danger of a regular barrage from the man's gun.

The Italian, Frank Salvatore, who lives at Keystone, a small village in Norwich township about 12 miles from Smethport, is alleged to have beaten up his daughter during the day because apparently she had married a short time ago against his wishes. The girl's husband was away from home at the time, and she is said to have been terribly used up.

After beating her, Salvatore went to Johnsonburg, and when he reurned home he had been drinking a wild brand of "hooch" from all appearances.

Meanwhile, the daughter had secured a warrant for her father's arrest. Constable Teed went to serve the papers upon Salvatore when he got home, and was greeted by defiance and barricaded doors.

Teed notified Detective Allison, who took Dickinson along to the scene of trouble.

The officers surrounded the house and forced their way in. Salvatore was upstairs sitting upon a bed. As the police entered the room, he grabbed a pistol and fired. Teed was struck by the bullet in the neck, but gamely hung on to the prisoner, while Allison deftly subdued the wild man.

Teed is now in the Bradford hospital, and although seriously wounded will soon recover.

Salvatore was held under $5,000 bail on the charge of intent to kill, and $500 bail on the charge of aggravated assault upon his daughter. He is being held at the local jail.

MRS. M. L. CHURCH.

Mr. M. L. Church a former resident of Smethport died last Friday night of hemmorrhage of the brain at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Brown of Williamsport, Pa.

Mrs. Church was born in December 1854, she lived here about twenty-one year ago, and was prominent in both church and club work. At the time of her death she was a lady Maccabee, and left a large circle of friends.

Those immediate relatives who survive to mourn her loss are: two sisters, Mrs. John Brown, and Mrs. Walter Maxwell of Williamsport, Pa. and a brother in Cincinnatti, a daughter, Mrs. Earl Bender of Elizabeth, N. J. and a son, Chas Church of Jacksonville, Fla.

The body was laid to rest Monday morning in Rose Hill cemetery. A short service was held at the grave, Rev. Arthur Gregson, officiating.

Dr. and Mrs. John Brown, Mrs. Walter Maxwell, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bender were present at the services.

$35,000 FOR ELECTRICITY

Mr. J. Clayton Backus, organizer of the Electric Light and Power Company which will bring current to the town probably by next spring, announce that over $35,000 worth of stock has been subscribed for. In fact, besides the names listed below, there are several others who have made requests for stock, so that it looks as though there will not be enough of it left to supply the public's demands.

The names of the contributors, and the amounts to which they have subscribed are,

County Commissioners, $15,000.
Orlo J. Hamlin, $5,000.
H. H. Redfield, $5,000.
Mrs. Eugenia Merrill, $3,000.
Mrs. Mary Forrest, $3,000.
Mrs. Emma McCandless, $3,000.
Sandford L. Fry, $1,000.

This leaves $5,000 remaining on the original $40,000 worth of stock Mr. Backus guaranteed to raise, and judging from all appearances and the number of inquiries from those who still wish to buy this stock, he will have difficulty in dividing the remaining amount among so many.

The first block o fthe stock to be subscribed for was that of $15,000 worth, which the County Commissioners took shortly after the announcement that a company was to be formed.

Now, with the $40,000 raised to be added to the $33,000 borough bond issue which the voters favored so overwhelmingly at the polls, practically everything necessary to electricity has been done—except the momentous job of actually bringing the current to local homes and business places. And if this is done with comparatively the same dispatch and creditable manner as the company was organized and the stock sold to willing subscribers, then it will not be any great length of time before the town will be well lighted and our homes made brighter and more modern.

Mr. Backus deserves the hearty thanks, good will and continued co-operation for the splendid service he has rendered the community in his fight for electricity. Some persons said pessimistically that he could not raise the necessary $40,000, but he claimed he could, and he did.

One citizen has also requested to be looked upon as a prospective purchaser of a large amount of borough bonds which will be issued within a short time, undoubtedly.

PORTVILLE IS SHUTOUT 5-0

Smethport shutout the Portville baseball bunch in a clean, sportsmanlike game by the score of 5 to 0 last Sunday.

The contest was far different in aspect from the football game which the Smethport High School team was robbed of at Portville sometime ago. Even though the referee of that disgraceful contest was on the Portville team last Sunday, there were no evidence of violence shown against him, which, indeed, was a wonder.

L. Walker, the local pitcher, had the visitors at his mercy throughout the game, striking out the first six men who faced him.

Eleven hits were garnered off the enemy hurler, Bush, the locals getting their scores in the second, the fourth and the sixth innings.

McDermott and L. Walker were the heavy hitters for the locals, each getting three hits apiece.

The line-ups:

Smethport—Peeler, c., L. Walker, p., McDermott 1b., J. Walker, 2b., Cooper, ss., Tull, 3b., L. Hull, lf., McKenna, cf., Clark, rf.

Portville—B. Moran 2b., J. Moran ss., Holcomb, 1b., Webber, c., Hanley, lf., Green, cf., Davidson, 3b., Stull, rf., Bush, p.

Next Sunday the locals will play the strong Bolivar nine for the benefit of the Womens' Auxiliary, Bucktail Post. This game should be very well attended, and liberal contribution made for the cause it will help.

NANSEN CHEMICAL PLANT BURNS—LOSS $25,000.

Kane, Pa., Oct 18.—The charcoal warehouse of the Nansen Chemical company's plant at Nansen, near here, was destroyed by fire yesterday, causing a loss estimated at $25,000 which is partly covered by insurance.

The fire started in cars on the industrial railroad used to transport the charcoal to the storage rooms. Workmen and residents of Nansen with the help of a crew of workers from Russell City after a long fight managed to confine the fire to one building and saved the rest of the plant.

RED CROSS GIVES ANNUAL BUDGET

$19,361,657 Allotted for Current Program of Relief and Service.

MILLIONS FOR VETERAN AID

Medical Aid for European Children Will Cost $6,000,000 This Year.

Washington.—Expenditures totalling $19,361,657 for carrying through its program of relief and services in the United States and overseas are outlined in the budget of the American Red Cross for the current fiscal year. This total is more than $5,000,000 lower than the expenditure during the last fiscal year, when the disbursements reached $24,492,741. It is announced at National Headquarters in a statement calling attention to the necessity of continued support of the organization by response to the Annual Roll Call, November 11 to 24, if the vital work of the society is to be effectively carried on.

Outstanding among the items of the domestic budget is the appropriation of $3,633,256 for work in behalf of the disabled ex-service man and his family. This appropriation represents the amount allotted to this work from National Headquarters only and does not take into consideration the millions being spent in chapters for relief of the World War veteran. It is in the chapter that the greater amount is spent in meeting this obligation of the Red Cross, the announcement continues, as manifested by figures of the fiscal year 1920-1921 when the total was approximately [illegible] of which [illegible] represented the disbursement of National Headquarters while the remainder was the chapters' contribution to this field of Red Cross service.

Vast Work for Disabled

Chief among the subdivisions of the appropriation for work with veterans is that which concerns itself with assistance to disabled men and women in government hospitals. This item of $1,790,000, an increase of more than $500,000 over the appropriation for the same work in last year's budget, will provide those personal services for the disabled and their families which are indispensable to supplement those provided by the government. The director of the Veterans' Bureau has recently expressed his desire that the Red Cross should continue and extend these "humanizing services." Other items of the appropriation for veterans' relief are proportionately increased. An additional appropriation of [illegible] has been made for Red Cross work in connection with regular Army and Navy hospitals and with the regular Army and Navy.

For disability relief the Red Cross has set aside for the current twelve months an appropriation of [illegible], virtually doubling the appropriation for the same purpose for the fiscal year 1920-1921.

More than $2,000,000 is provided for service and assistance to the 3,600 Red Cross chapters by the national organization.

Helping Destitute Children

Other items of the domestic budget include $388,546 for miscellaneous activities, including contributions restricted for special purposes and $768,600 for management. Each of these items represents large reductions over similar appropriations of the previous year.

From a fund of $10,000,000, $5,000,000 of which was contributed through the European Relief Council campaign and $5,000,000 allotted by the Red Cross for child welfare work in Europe, there remains $8,765,108 still available, of which it is estimated that $6,000,000 will be required for this work during the current year. For Red Cross participation in the joint effort to relieve famine conditions in Russia, for final work in the China famine, for Junior Red Cross and other overseas activities including the closing of the old general relief program in Europe $4,078,000 is made available.

In announcing the national budget, the Red Cross makes it clear that the figures do not include chapter expenditures or place any cash estimate on the invaluable service of volunteers in chapters.

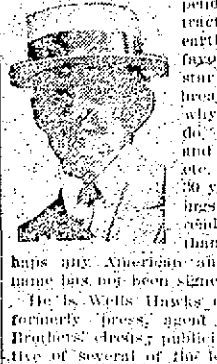
Noted Publicity Man, Who Has Been Active in Formation of Legion Film Service.



He has told you all about the wonders of "the most gorgeous and stupendous tent attraction on the earth," what your favorite movie star wears for breakfast and why; what they do in the navy and when, etc., etc. For the last 30 years his writings have been read more widely than those of perhaps any American author, but his name has not been signed to them.

He is Wells Hawks of New York; formerly press agent of Ringling Brothers' circus; publicity representative of several of the leading motion picture corporations; personal representative for 12 years of Charles Frohman, the theatrical producer, and during the war in charge of publicity for the navy.

Mr. Hawks, a lieutenant commander in the naval reserve, organized and for three terms commanded the S. Rankin Drew post of the American Legion, composed of actors and actresses, movie and [illegible], publicity and newspaper men of New York city. He has been active in the formation of the American Legion film service of [illegible], which is supplying [illegible] to [illegible] of the country.

KNOWN AS FAIRY GODMOTHER

State President of Minnesota Women's Auxiliary, Mrs. Sandy Hamilton, Is Warm Friend of Veterans.

With a post of the American Legion of Minnesota named in honor of her son who fell in France, Mrs. Sandy Hamilton, Minneapolis, who has just taken office as state president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Legion, has adopted all the wounded veterans of the state in memory of her boy.

During the year that she was chairman of the [illegible] hospital [illegible], Mrs. Hamilton spent [illegible] in [illegible] to disabled men in [illegible] hospitals. The [illegible] came to think of her [illegible] and to them she was "our fairy godmother."

Reading the report of her work before the recent state convention of the auxiliary, Mrs. Hamilton told of the loneliness and suffering of the brave men who had sacrificed their health for their country. When she had finished there was not a dry eye in the big meeting hall.

TO ATTEND LEGION MEETING

Marshal Foch, Noted Military Leader, Plans to Honor Convention With His Presence.

The governors of Missouri and Kansas, the mayors of Kansas City, Kan., and Missouri, and a federation of the principal clubs and societies of those cities joined in a formal expression of the honor they feel in the occasion of the visit Marshal Foch will make to the United States in order to attend the opening of the third national convention of the American Legion at Kansas City.

A memorial to this effect was presented the marshal at the recent dedication of the Pershing monument in France by Charles W. Bartlett of Kansas City, chairman of the distinguished visitors committee of the convention. Mr. Bartlett accompanied the Legion pilgrimage to France for this purpose.

The marshal asked Mr. Bartlett to convey to the people of Missouri and Kansas how deeply he was touched by this honor and to assure them of the eagerness with which he looked forward to seeing more of the Legion when he should come to the United States.

Aerial Exhibition at Convention.

Altitude trials, parachute drops and a spectacular aerial derby in which most of the country's best aviators will take part, will be included in a flying circus to be held during the third annual convention of the American Legion at Kansas City, October 30, 31 and November 1. Eddie Rickenbacker, William Furlow and Edgar Tobin are among the aces who will be seen. A raid with illuminated bombs will feature the night flying program. Stunt flyers will change planes in air, walk on the wings and loop the loop in contest for a large prize.

WE CAN PROVE IT

With a dozen new Edisons.

We did prove it,—absolutely and conclusively, with a single New Edison. You know we did,—from the results of the test made Sept. 19th at the Lyceum Theater, when Leeta Corder compared her voice with its Re-Creation by the New Edison.

We can prove it again,—With any other Official Laboratory Model in our store.

The marvelous exhibition was not the achievement of a special New Edison. It was simply a regular performance for any Official Laboratory Model.

THE NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul."

Buy one of these Official Laboratory Models on our easy payment Budget Plan. Then you have the one phonograph that sustains the one vital phonograph test. Then you have music so perfectly Re-Created that you feel that you are listening to living artists.

We guarantee that any Official Laboratory Model, which you select from our stock, will do everything which was done by the instrument used in the test of September 19, at the Theater.

KANE FOREIGNER ROBBED OF $1165 AND WATCH.

Kane, Pa., October 13.—Joseph Drenchas, a Russian, who runs a boarding camp for woodcutters in the forest on the Highland road, a few miles from this city, was knocked down and robbed last night. One robber held an automatic gun against the victim's head while another secured $1165 and his watch.

Drenchas' habit of carrying a large sum of money on his person was known to the two men, who, it is alleged, are Russians, who formerly worked in the woods and boarded at Drenchas' camp.

Last night the pair approached Drenchas in Kane and told him they were going to accompany him back to the camp and get some tools which they said they had left there. The three men made the trip to the vicinity of the camp from Kane in a taxi, which they left on the Highland road and started through the woods in search of the tools. Suddenly one of the men jumped upon Drenchas' back and bore him to the ground.

They searched Drenchas' clothing and took the money which was in a large roll of bills. Chief Fowler of the Kane police was notified and has sent descriptions of the men to the state police headquarters at Butler and also notified the authorities of the surrounding counties.

It is not unusual, the police say, for some of the woodcutters to carry several thousand dollars about with them.

FIRE DESTROYS $30,000 WORTH OF AUTOMOBILES

Olean, Oct. 13.—Fire yesterday morning destroyed $30,000 worth of automobile in the garage of Fred W. Forness and about 18 cars damaged, 12 being total wercks.

TWO DEAD, TWO HURT IN R. R. CROSSING ACCIDENT

Olean, Oct. 11.—Two women are dead and two seriously injured, injured as the result of a Pennsylvania flyer, south bound, hitting an automobile on the elevated crossing near White House at 7:20 o'clock this morning. The auto was totally demolished.

Mrs. Harry Hockenbury of Bolivar.

The dead are:

Mr. George Schram of Bolivar.

The injured are:

Mrs. Robert Herrick of Bolivar.

Mr. A. W. Nicholson of Bolivar.

The train hit the automobile squarely in the center, the force of the impact hurling the car down a 30 foot embankment. Mrs. Hockenberry was instantly killed and Mrs. Schram died while being placed in an ambulance a few minutes later.

Mrs. Herrick was brought to an Olean hospital suffering from internal injuries and a badly bruised back. Mr. Nicholson is in the Higgins hospital suffering from similar injuries.

KANE GLASS PLANT WILL RESUME OPERATIONS.

Kane, Pa., Oct. 15.—The Kane Window Glass company's plant will start operations Monday, employing 250 men. Yesterday one tank of the big American window glass plant started work with 250 men, making three window glass factories in operation here employing close to 900 men. The Thatcher Manufacturing company, which makes milk bottles, is increasing its working force as is Holgate Brothers' big factory where brush handles are made.

The Pennsylvania railroad shops here expect soon to place more men at work, and the soaring price of oil is renewing activities in the Kane field, altogether making this city better off, industrially, than many of its size in the country.

STATE FORESTRY MAN WILL COME TO BRADFORD

Bradford, October 17.—John W. Kelley, chief of the Silviculture division of the State Forestry Bureau, will arrive in Bradford Tuesday, October 18, and will remain in this city for a week, during which time he will make an inspection of the city timber lands on the water sheds of the Gilbert and Marilla brooks.

Mayor DeGolier received a letter from the Forestry department yesterday which stated that Mr. Kelley would depart from Harrisburg on October 17 and would reach Bradford this morning.

During his stay in the city, Mr. Kelley will make an exhaustive study of the water shed timber lands and will advise the city officials concerning the matter of removing some of the timber, and what will be the best means of preserving one of the city's greatest assets.

WANTS STATE UNIVERSITY.

State College, Pa., Oct 15.—The conversion of the Pennsylvania State college into a state university was the policy announced by President John M. Thomas in his address upon the occasion of his inauguration here this morning.

"The time has now come when this college should frankly assume the name and functions which its present strength and service justify, and become in name as it is now in fact, the Pennsylvania state university," he said. After giving a complete account of the college history, Penn State's new president showed by the example of 23 other states that the way to build a state university in Pennsylvania is to use this college already owned by the state as a foundation, and make it the capstone of Pennsylvania's system of free educatoin. His words were received with great enthusiasm by the hundreds of students and alumni who attended the induction ceremony, and won praise from the scores of college and university delegates present from all parts of the country.

COLT CAUSES CAR TO TURN UPSIDE DOWN.

Bradford, Oct. 17.—Saturday evening an unusual automobile accident occurred when a car containing some nine of the players of the Corning Northside football team, was wrecked and turned upside down by colliding with a colt which had run in front of the car. The accident occurred at a point two miles the other side of Limestone on the new concrete road, and as a result six members of the nine who were in the car at the time of the accident were cut by flying glass and some of them badly bruised by being thrown from the car when it struck the colt.

Nine members of the aggregation were riding in the front car, which was an Oldsmobile eight. The driver was making good time on the new concrete road, sailing along at 25 miles an hour. When two miles below Limestone the driver noticed a colt in a field ahead of him and the animal made a lunge through the fence and on to the road. The driver gave the machine a quick turn to the side of the road, but the frightened animal made another jump and landed squarely in front of the machine.

WHOLE BRADFORD-SMETHPORT ROAD SOON READY.

Kane, October 17.—Fred Brennan, inspector for the state highways at present located at Bradford, spent Sunday at his home here. Mr. Brennan informed The Republican that the concrete work at the foot of Rew hill had been finished and that only 2600 feet of brick pavement on the hill remained to be laid to complete the Smethport-Bradford highway. With good weather, this work can be done in ten days and allowing ten more to dry out, the whole stretch would be ready for travel in 20 days.

Kane, Mt. Jewett, Bradford and Smethport residents should join together to boost the construction of the road from Kasson to Mt. Jewett next year, making a continuous stretch the width of the county. This matter can be greatly helped by petitioning the highway department and bringing to the attention of that body the importance of this piece of roadway.

Another improvement greatly needed is the resurfacing of the stretch of macadan between Bradford and Rew, and it is believed that the highway department will include that work on next year's program.

VALLEY FORGE SOIL MADE SACRED NOV. 11

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 17.—The Department of Forestry will collect a small quantity of soil at Valley Forge and ship it to Milledgeville, Georgia, where the local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will place it at the roots of a Liberty Tree that is to be planted there on Armistice Day, November 11. The soil will be collected and shipped at the request of Governor Sproul, who has been informed that the tree will be planted "to remind the youth of our country that sectional estrangement no longer exists, that in place of it we have a Union of States no one can sever."

Thursday, October 20, 1921.

Today it appears as though the great railroad strike is likely to be amicably settled.

We are glad.

Neither the railroads nor the railroad workers, nor the public and Nation could afford to go through such a disastrous period as would inevitably result from a strike of this sort just now when the whole country is endeavoring—and from all appearance successfully—to get back to something like a normal trend of things.

Both the railroads and the workmen are intelligent enough to know that everyone must concede something in the general effort toward a betterment of conditions.

Freight and express rates are too high right now for the present state of business. They are due to take a drop. We may blast the railroads for ever more, but nevertheless, they will not reduce the rates until they can see their way clear.

Whether their stand is justified or not, that is another story.

But no matter if their methods are right or wrong, they will not be bettered by a strike, which would paralyze industry completely and cause untold suffering and distress.

Two wrongs will not make a right.

SENATOR KNOX.

The country could ill afford at any time to lose the services of a statesman of Senator Philander C. Knox's stature, least of all at this time when so many great events are going forward, events of national and international concern. With the treaty with Germany under consideration and the conference on the limitation of armaments about to begin work, his counsel would have been of great help. His death is most untimely.

It is not an easy task to sum up in a few sentences the real achievements and assess the value of a life of service so generous and varied as was that of Mr. Knox. He was recognized as one of the great lawyers of the country before he entered the Senate. His ability was so marked that President Taft called him to serve as secretary of state, a post which he filled with honor to himself and credit to the nation. Of his service there Mr. Knox took rank with the foremost of authorities on international law. With his return to the Senate he became one of the leaders in that body and when the treaty of Versailles was under consideration he led the opposition to ratification on the ground that the League of Nations covenant challenged American sovereignty. He stood for nationalism as against Mr. Wilson's program for internationalism. Whatever credit attaches to the defeat of the treaty and covenant is largely Mr. Knox's.

Patriotism and high principles marked all his public life. In every sense he was a great American.

OIL AND INDUSTRY.

The steady and sustained advance in prices for all grades of crude oil indicates not only a revival in the allied petroleum industries but in general business as well.

The price of crude is based upon demand in its relation to supply and the increased inquiry indicated by steadily enhancing prices can only come from a more general turning of the wheels of industry, greater business confidence and easier financial conditions which always accompanies confidence.

Producers everywhere will be encouraged to press field development work although there is apt to be a note of conservation in their operations for a time in view of past experiences.

Indications multiply that the corner has been turned in the business world and that depression is being left in the rear. Under the leadership of oils, industry is again approaching "normalcy" and the coming year promises to be one of more than ordinary activity.
than ordinary activity—Bradford Era.

Judge Bouton in his speech yesterday at the Community club luncheon gave every good citizen much to think about and emphasize in all our minds the age-old truth that when it comes to personal morality, no one has anything on anyone, in reality, though it is human nature to "pass the buck" and try to make ourselves and others believe that such is not the case. The person, however, who is constantly parading the "holier than thou" banner and transparency, very soon discovers he hurts himself most. The Judge paid his respects to the newspapers, too, by saying that they print details of court cases such as the Arbuckles and Stillman ones, which narratives can have no other effect than evil, especially upon the minds of the young girls and boys, and while he believes in the freedom of the Press, he hoped the time would come when such things would be blue-penciled by all newspaper editors. The Judge would no doubt admit, too, that if all did but one, the average man or woman would go far and send many miles to get a copy daily of the paper; therefore let's make it unanimous.

CONCERNING SEN. F. B. WILLIS.

Mr. O. W. Lillibridge, Superintendent of the McKean County schools requested the writer to furnish the press something regarding Senator Frank B. Willis of Ohio, who will address the Teachers' Institute the evening of November 1st.

The writer became acquainted with Senator Willis while attending the Ohio Northern University. The Senator at that time taught Economics and History at the Ada School. He was the idol of the student body. Always his appearance at gatherings was greeted by applause.

While in his early twenties he served in the Ohio Legislature. During this time, the Willis Law was passed, which netted the State nearly a million dollars a year in taxes from corporations who previously had escaped. Willis nominated Joseph B. Foraker in the Ohio General Assembly for the United States Senator.

Later he was sent to Congress and then the Republicans nominated him for Governor against Cox, who became the Democrat nominee for President last year. Willis won and served one term.

It was Frank B. Willis who nominated Warren G. Harding at the Republican national Convention in Chicago for President. His speech aroused great interest. The Chicago American which supported Hiram Johnson of California for president made the following comment: "If Hiram Johnson's name had been presented to the convention by Frank B. Willis of Ohio, he would have won the nomination."

Last November 1,134,953 Ohioan voters went to the polls and cast their votes for Frank B. Willis, for the United States Senate. Early in the year, Warren G. Harding resigned as Senator and Governor Cox appointed Willis to fill the vacancy.

The Anti-Beer bill now before Congress is known as the Willis Shepherd bill, so you may see Willis is now making national history. Senator Willis is still a young man, about 49 years of age. His rapid rise in public affairs may be explained by quoting Joe Chappell of the National Magazine, Boston.

"He (Willis) seems to know how to interpret the public mind, and his fame in his own state and nation has grown rapidly. But it does not grow any faster than the capacity of the mind and brain of the big, stalwart, good-natured, big-brained Frank B. Willis".

The people of Smethport do not have to be told that Senator Willis is an orator, for while he was congressman he addressed a Teachers' Institute in the Court House.

The Odd Fellows installed new officers last Friday night, the following being elected: J. B. Oviatt, past grand; Fred Masser, noble grand; J. V. Gallup, vice grand; Fred Bleyer, treasurer.

Mr. Hunger, the district representative of Pennsylvania, of Kane, was present and gave a fine talk. Speeches were also made by the officers elected and they were [illegible] enjoyed.

On Friday of last week Scoville, Brown & Company unloaded a carload of New Crop Silver Leaf Tea which they imported from Japan. It came from Vancouver direct to Wellsville. The car contained 167 was slightly over twenty-four tons, chests. The gross weight of the tea and the freight from Japan on the shipment amounts to $1,194.00.

Scoville, Brown & Company have been importing and distributing Silver Leaf Teas for a good many years, and probably no tea is as well known or enjoys as large a sale in this section of the country as Silver Leaf.

COLONEL GILLETTE MAKES FLYING TRIP HOME.

Colonel Melville Gillette returned home on Saturday, coming from Washington, D. C. He left town on Tuesday night.

Found a Singing Crow.

The great crow of the North, a bird as large as a raven or a young buzzard, is a talented singer. Most crows have a raucous cry, but this black bird, who appears so often on the totem poles, is a singer.

R. P. Bonham tells of his first experience with the great crow of Alaska. A party were ashore looking over an old Indian village when suddenly a golden voice broke forth in melody. The nearest bird to them was a great crow, and, in a jesting way, Bonham assured his companions that it was this crow that was singing, thinking to have some fun with the party. But to his surprise he was proved a truth-teller, for while they all watched the bird opened his spacious mouth. Instead of the expected "Caw, caw," a rippling flood of song burst forth.—Portland Oregonian.

Plant "Dog in the Manger."

Quite a number of plants seem to have developed something very like a consciousness, enabling them to [illegible] the best way of circumventing the encroachments of their neighbors.

A remarkable instance of this is seen in connection with the [illegible], [illegible] when, as is often the case, it is found [illegible] a [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] turn its [illegible] roots into [illegible] posts, which completely [illegible] the crevices where soil is to be found and effectively keep competitors out.

Lucky Kid.

Bud was brought to the barber's every week to have his [illegible] hair trimmed. This always was a terrible ordeal for him. One day he was called into his mother's room to see the new baby. After making a mental note of the fact that its head was bald he said joyously: "Gee, my baby sister won't have to go to a barber."

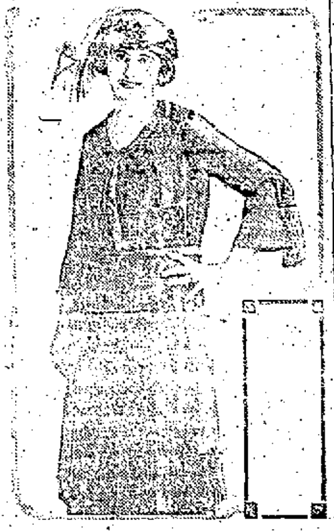
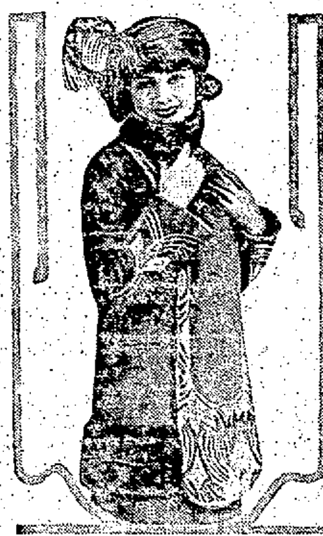
REVEALING NEW IDEAS



Many new ideas appear in this formal tailored frock for the coming fall and winter in which the vogue for embroidery and that for fringes have been so artfully and beautifully united. It takes the place of a formal tailored suit, and is perhaps even more adaptable to many occasions than its forerunner. The picture tells its story; but note the shape of the neck and sleeves, the narrow lace vestee and strap belt, the ingenious placing of embroidery—they are all important.

INGENIOUS AND MODISH



Among the new suits for fall and winter there are none in which the season's style features have been used to better advantage than in the model illustrated. Its coat is of medium length, with embroidered panel at the front and the much-admired bell sleeve. It is trimmed with a band and collar of fur.

Ancient Dye Too Costly.

Tyrian purple, the most famous dye of antiquity, was so expensive that in the reign of Diocletian one pound of purple wool cost $200, which would make the dye itself worth about $5,000 a pound. In 1908 Professor Friedlander gathered 12,000 of the sea snails from which this ancient dye was made, and prepared a little of the coloring matter. His investigations showed it to be identical with a dye known to synthetic chemists, but not used on account of its inferiority to other synthetic dyes which are both cheap and common at the present day.

CAN'T EXPLAIN IT

"One thing I can't explain," said Deacon Hapgood, "and that is as to why women's dresses are getting shorter in the skirt and lower in the neck, and yet higher in price."

Deacon, we can't explain it, either. Many a YOUNG girl these days argues with her mother that she is now OLD enough to wear short skirts! Times have changed, that's all. Old fashioned folks kept their money hid somewhere about the house unless burglars beat them to it. Now they keep their money in the Bank and pay by check and are taking no chances. BE PROGRESSIVE.

SENATOR PHILANDER KNOX LAID AT REST SATURDAY

Philadelphia, Oct. 16.—The body of Senator Philander C. Knox was reverently laid at rest yesterday afternoon in a grave dug in a hillock behind the Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge.

Notables of Congress, where Senator Knox had been an important figure were grouped about the grave as the silver-mounted casket was lowered into the soil at 2:45.

Mrs. Knox, the Senator's widow who had sat on a chair by the graveside, sobbing softly during the brief and impressive committal service, dropped a pink rose on the casket. It was a final tribute of love and devotion before the brown earth was heaped up in a mound.

At 2.25 o'clock the funeral party started from the Knox home at Valley Forge, where the late Senator a few months ago was host to President Harding.

The long friendship between the Senator and the man now at the head of the Nation was typified by a wreath, the tribute of President and Mrs. Harding, which was the only floral decoration on the black silk-covered casket.

Up to the burial ground the party moved slowly, while at the Washington Memorial Chapel the distinguished men who were the official representation of the Nation filed slowly along a woodland path that led to the hillside grave.

550 DISASTER DEATH TOLL FOR ONE YEAR

Red Cross Gives $1,871,000 Relief When 65,000 Families Are Made Homeless.

Forty-three disasters, resulting in the death in the United States of 550 persons and the injury of [illegible], called for emergency relief measures and the expenditure of $1,871,000 by the American Red Cross during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, according to figures based upon the forthcoming annual report of the Red Cross. The 43 disasters caused property damage estimated at [illegible], affected sixty-seven communities and rendered 65,000 families homeless.

The year's disasters were of varying types, including several which previously had never been thought of as falling within that classification. The Red Cross furnished relief in seventeen fires of magnitude, five floods, seven tornadoes or cyclones, one devastating storm, three explosions, including the one in Wall street; one building accident; two typhoid epidemics, the most serious being that at Salem, Ohio, which affected 9 per cent of the population; one smallpox epidemic in the republic of Haiti; one train wreck, the race riot at Tulsa, Okla.; the famine in China, emergency relief in famine among the Indians of Alaska, the grasshopper plague in North Dakota and an earthquake in Italy.

Pueblo Most Serious

By far the most severe of the disasters in the United States during the period covered by the Red Cross report was the Pueblo flood early in June, 1921. The rehabilitation problem confronting the Red Cross in Pueblo was one of the most difficult in recent years. When the first news of the horror was flashed throughout the country, the American Red Cross National Headquarters responded with a grant of [illegible] for relief work. Governor Shoup of Colorado, appreciating the long and successful experience of the Red Cross in organizing disaster relief work, placed the entire responsibility for the administration of relief in its hands.

In response to appeals from President Harding, Governor Shoup and other governors of western states and through local chapters of the Red Cross and other community organizations, public-spirited citizens brought the total contributed for Pueblo's rehabilitation to more than $325,000.

The terrible havoc wrought by the flood waters is a matter of record. More than 2,300 homes were affected and 7,351 persons were left homeless. Estimates of $500,000 as an absolute minimum for rehabilitation were made by Red Cross officials in charge of the relief work.

Fast Work in Wall Street

The Wall street explosion was notable in that relief workers of the Red Cross were on the scene twenty minutes after the disaster occurred. The race riot at Tulsa also was unique in disaster relief annals in that outside of a small emergency relief fund contributed by the Red Cross, the only relief measures outside the city consisted of the service of social workers, nurses and a trained executive whose object was to assist local forces in directing their own efforts.

In decided contrast with the previous year, only one tornado assumed the proportions of a major disaster. This occurred on April 15, in the border sections of Texas and Arkansas with the city of Texarkana as the center. The significant feature of this disaster relief work was the fact that it covered so much rural territory as to make necessary a large number of relief workers.

The famine in China, necessitating relief expenditures totalling more than $1,000,000 by the American Red Cross was by far the most serious of the foreign disasters in which the Red Cross gave aid.

Builds Up Its Machinery

In connection with the administration of disaster relief measures, an increasing effectiveness on the part of the Red Cross to deal with emergencies was manifested during the past year. In 328 Chapters of the American Red Cross there have been formed special committees to survey the resources of their respective communities and to be prepared in case of disaster. In others of the 3,402 active Chapters, a network of communication has been formed through which instantaneous relief may be dispatched to any part of the United States.

That its work in this field may be continued with ever greater effectiveness, the American Red Cross is appealing for widespread renewal of membership during its Annual Roll Call, to be conducted this year from November 11 to 24.

LIFE SAVING CORPS ENROLLMENT 10,000

Growth of Red Cross Life Saving Corps throughout the country continued unabated during the last fiscal year, a summary of the year's achievements by that Red Cross Service shows. There are now 160 Corps with a total membership of more than 10,000 members, of which 1,276 are sufficiently skilled in the work to act as examiners. Among the outstanding achievements of the Red Cross in this field during the last year was the organization at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, of what is perhaps the largest life saving corps in the world.

Mr. W. H. Taft, Harrisburg, Pa.
Mr. R. B. Moore, Columbus, Ohio.

Professor J. W. Yoder of Philadelphia has lead the institute music on many previous occasions. With his vast experience as a leader of institute music, his familiarity with the teachers of McKean county, the new song book "The Mystic" all together bespeaks the best ever.

Professor R. B. Moore, of Columbus is assistant general manager of Zaner-Blosser Company. A teacher and supervisor of penmanship and institute intructor of wide experience. Mr. Moore was formerly Supervisor of Writing in the Public Schools of Masillon, Ohio, and later Director of Handwriting in the Public Schools of Louisville, Kentucky. He has traveled extensively and is in very close touch with school work generally. Mr. Moore's institute work model lessons and practical suggestions in the use of scales and measurements are attracting much attention.

Dr. Charles T. Grawn, A. M. Pd. is former President of Central State Normal School, Mt. Pleasant, Michigan and a lecturer who is ranked with the very best in the country. Dr. Grawn has traveled extensively in European countries, especially the Scandivanian countries.

Dr. F. D. Slutz needs no introduction to the teachers of McKean County. The hearty welcome which he received last season and the many requests from teachers that he might be secured to return again this fall, speaks well for his ability to please. His talks on literature will be doubly welcomed by the teachers of high school.

William S. Taft, B. A. of Harrisburg will speak to the teachers on Tuesday morning. Mr. Taft will bring the problems of the Attendance Bureau to the attention of the teacher who is in doubt as to the new calendar month report which his department is putting into use this

ENROLLMENT.

In order to become a member of the institute and receive pay for attendance each teacher must enroll. This may be done at the Court House on Monday from 10:00 a. m. to noon and at the close of each session thereafter. In order to receive pay for attendance Monday one must be enrolled for the afternoon session. The enrollment fee which entitles the teacher to membership in the institute, admission to the evening entertainments and enrollment in the State Educational Association as well as subscription to the Pennsylvania School Journal is $5.50 less railroad fare from the logical station for your school to Smethport and return. Be sure you know the exact amount of your railroad fare before presenting yourself for enrollment.

EVENING ENTERTAINMENTS.

Monday, October 31—lecture, Dr. F. D. Slutz.

Tuesday, November 1—lecture, Hon. F. B. Willis.

Wednesday, November 2—Light Opera Revue.

Thursday, November 3 — The Aborn Operatic Sextette.

These numbers are very superior to anything ever before appearing at the McKean County Institute.

Dr. F. D. Slutz is one of the most effective speakers on the lecture platform. He is president of the Moraine Park School of Dayton, Ohio, which is one of the best known educational institutions of that state. The keen interest displayed in this excellent gentleman's work of the past season merits a place on the evening program.

Senator Frank B. Willis is one of the best known men in public life. He was for many years one of the strongest members of the great university located at Ada, Ohio. He served his state in the House of Representative and also as governor. He is now junior senator from Ohio.

He was selected at the Chicago convention to put the name of Warren G. Harding in nomination for the presidency. Willis made the outstanding speech of the convention.

The Light Opera Revue, musical company trained by Janet Hersey, is unique in ability and in their rendition of every number of their program which is "A Thing of Beauty."

The individual artists comprising the personnel of the Light Opera Revue, might well be used in any of our leading musical companies. In fact it was only to demonstrate to our patrons what excellent and unusual possibilities prevailed in a combination of this kind that we placed them in this particular company.

There will not be even a suggestion of time-worn features in their programme—no military costumes, no blare of trumpets, but dainty, exquisite selections from the latest popular light operas. These numbers will be presented in solos, in duets and in trio and occasionally by the entire company. The costumes used are correct and are made of beautiful material. For those not especially interested in singing, there will be instrumental numbers on the violin and piano by real musicians and readings.

The Light Opera Revue programme is so good, so beautifully staged, that we do not hesitate to recommend it unreservedly.

ABORN OPERATIC SEXTETTE.

First a word regarding Milton Aborn, under whose direction this Sextette was coached and produced. Milton Aborn has been a producer of English Grand Opera for years. He prides himself on the facts that a large percentage of the people appearing with him have later appeared in the Metropolitan, some in minor roles, some few starring. His companies appeared in all the large cities from Maine to California. His name has never been associated with an inferior production.

The programme is to be in two parts. The first half will be devoted to standard concert music, the artists presenting solos, duets and quartette numbers. The selections offered are chosen to bring out the best in each singer presenting solos, duets and quartette numbers. The selections offered are chosen to bring out the best in each singer. We have endeavored to make this program artistic and really fine. Everyone who attends the concert will receive a mental stimulus which will serve in lovers of music to deepen an apreciation already their own and to create in those not musical a taste for good music.

Immediately following the concert programme, the opera Faust will be given in practically its entirety, with costumes and such accessories as are necessary to the proper presentation of this most popular of all grand operas. This part of the programme must not be confused with the excerpt type of operatic programme given by the ordinary Lyceum companies. This is the full opera, presented with due regard for continuity of story by operatic stars of the first magnitude.

The opening scene, famous garden scene, and prison scene will be given without cuts. Only here and there, where music and story are least necessary will there be cuts to bring the programme to the necessary length.

The musical numbers for Wednesday and Thursday evenings are as good as the best of previous years.

DRAMATIC CLIMAX TO KU KLUX PROBE.

Washington, Oct. 13.—Closing an all day defense of the Ku Klux Klan William J. Simmons, its imperial wizard toppled over in a chair today while the chairman of a House committee investigating the order was attempting to stop the applause which broke before the crowd knew the wizard had collapsed, says the Associated Press.

Friends of Mr. Simmons rushed to his side and supplied stimulants but as it was evident that he was in no condition to continue the examination, the hearing, filled with many dramatic incidents during the day, was adjourned until tomorrow. Physicians later reported that Mr. Simmons' condition was not serious.

Bundled up about the chest, Mr. Simmons returned to the afternoon session unsteady of feet, his voice hoarse, but apparently eager to denounce what he characterized as outrageous charges against the organization he found in Georgia five years ago.

A solemn stillness prevailed at times while the wizard holding aloft the ritual of the klan, read parts of the oath taken by klansmen. And then in husky tones he told the committee that while Julius Ceaser had his Brutus and Washington his Benedict Arnold, he too, as imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan enter that fellowship, because he had suffered from the treasonable conduct of those within.

"If this organization is unworthy then let me know and I will destroy it." he exclaimed. "But if it is not; then let it stand."

Masser Brothers Will Continue in Business

We have decided to continue business at our old store, owing to the fact that we were unable to obtain a reasonable profit on our investment by selling out.

Practically our entire old stock is gone, and we are buying in large quantities, brand new goods filling out all our depleted lines and at the lowest prevailing prices.

We want the public to know that we still have faith in Smethport as a live town--one which will support its business houses by buying at home where the interests of the local people are.

Our stock room is to be greatly improved and renovated to take care of our new goods which we are ordering daily.

Watch for our announcements of new prices on new goods in a new store with a new policy which we are sure will bring new success. We thank the public for its liberal patronage in the past, and hope our customers will take advantage of our intention to remain in business by purchasing economically with us.

JUDGE BOUTON'S FINE SPEECH

the home ties as a most dangerous breeder of lawlessness and said that practically now all marriages are no more than trial marriages which is all wrong.

Judge Bouton said: strictly speaking there is no laboring class nor is there a criminal class, for all men are laborers or should be in some way or other, and all men are criminals at heart and those referred to usually as the "criminal class" are the poor fellows who have been caught or openly accused, while as many more are just as guilty but not found out or exposed.

He said of the one man [illegible] lived on this earth who was perfect and he was crucified and the judge [illegible] the scene in a white [illegible] sets on a pedestal and [illegible] to lower of the "Perfect Man." [illegible] from his talks and statements and actions, one would think he was trying to be a competitor rather than a follower.

The judge urged all good citizens to realize that officers of the courts and law did not need moral support to do their duty, as they took an oath to do that, but what they do need is persistence and evidence and all good people would furnish the officers and the court with legal evidence and information from which they could get evidence, then [illegible] progress could be secured and the [illegible] laws [illegible] most effectively.

NO HUNTING SEASON OPEN BEFORE OCTOBER 20.

Harrisburg, October 14, Regardless of the fact that a great deal of publicity has been given to changes in the game laws during the last six months, I hope you will publish this letter as a warning to all sportsmen that no season for game of any kind opens on October 20th as heretofore; instead the season for rabbits, squirrels, wild turkeys, ruffed grouse, ring-neck pheasants, quail, etc., opens on Tuseday, November 1st. The season for bears and the balance of fur-bearing animals (racoon season opened October 1st) will also open November 1st.

As the law now stands, it is absolutely necessary for every licensed sportsman to carry his license on his person and to display his tag on the outer garment on the middle of the back at all times while hunting back at all times while hunting. Sportsmen must not forget to countersign their licenses as it is not valid until signed. The penalty for failure to carry the license or display the tag is $20.00.
